Lakewood Council R&SM Marks 100th

On October 25, 1920, a meeting was called to discuss the formation of a Council in Lakewood, or, at least, to consider the advisability of such a project. The main desire in mind was to further spread the beautiful lessons of Cryptic Masonry in Lakewood and making it possible to confer the entire York Rite in Lakewood Temple.

Illustrious Companion Frank H. Snyder, Past Master of Canton Council No. 35, in 1919, was elected as the first Thrice Illustrious Master. Companion Wm. F. Rupprich was elected as the first Deputy Ill. Master and Companion D. A. Williams was elected as first Principal Conductor of the work. It was decided that meetings were to be held on the first Tuesday of the month and that the Council be named Lakewood Council.

Two months later the by-laws were approved at a special meeting, a petition praying for a dispensation to open and hold a Council of Royal and Select Masters in this city was signed by thirteen Companions, to wit: Companion F. H. Snyder, W. F. Rupprich, D. A. Williams, C. G. White, F. E. Barber, F. P. Lamb, E. A. Pusch, F. S. Freer, R. H. Domer, J. Hogue, D. A. Pomeroy, M. G. Monroe, and C. T. Cook. The dispensation was issued on January 28, 1921, by Most Illustrious Companion Lewis B. Shaw, Grand Master of the State of Ohio.

On February 1, 1921, R. Ill. Companion T. S. O'Hara, Grand Recorder, acting as Most Ill. Grand Master, proceeded to Lakewood and opened a special emergent assembly of the Grand Council of Ohio, in which Lakewood Council was duly organized under dispensation.

On March 1, 1921, a class of 62 candidates witnessed the first degree work of the Council. On May 3 a class of 23 candidates raised the number to 85 for the first Council year which ended May 31. On June 7 more candidates were admitted at an afternoon assembly, followed by the Super Excellent degree which was staged through the courtesy of the members of Elyria Council No. 86. On August 2, and September 6, the membership was raised to 122, the names of whom are found on the charter of the Council.

On October 4, 1921, Comp. F. H. Snyder, J. E. Townsend, D. A. Williams and F. P. Lamb attended the Ninety-second Annual Assembly of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters at Dayton, O., and presented the books of the Council to the committee on Charters and Dispensation, who straight-forwardly recommended that a charter be granted.

On November 1, 1921, Most Ill. Comp. C. L. Smith, Grand Master of the State of Ohio proceeded to Lakewood and opened the Grand Council of Ohio in a special emergent assembly for the purpose of constituting and dedicating Lakewood Council No. 125, R. & S. M. of the State of Ohio. Most Ill. Comp. C. L. Smith greatly appreciated the honor of being elected with Most Ill. Comp. Wm. T. S. O'Hara, R. A. Armstrong and H. E. Faubel as honorary members of Lakewood Council.

In 1922 the Council gained 56 members, in 1923 gained 17 members, in 1924 gained 36 members and in 1925 gained 23 members.

New Ways to Donate to our Foundation

Nearly every Mason and Eastern Star who has been a member of our Lakewood Masonic Family has fond memories of his/her experiences. These memories are all the more vivid because of our beautiful Lakewood Masonic Temple, specially designed as a home uniquely capable of supporting our fraternal activities. Many of our members have gone the extra mile by making contributions above and beyond their annual dues. We call your attention to several new ways to donate to our Foundation.

When you shop using AmazonSmile (smile.amazon.com/ch/20-0357206), Amazon will donate 0.5% of your purchase to our Lakewood Masonic Foundation. This will not increase the price you pay for your purchases.

Facebook users may donate through our Facebook page. Facebook does not charge a fee to our Lakewood Masonic Foundation or other not-for-profit organizations.

Holders of traditional (not Roth) IRAs must begin taking required minimum distributions (RMDs) in the year they turn age 70-1/2. Distributions made directly from an IRA to a qualified charity such as our Lakewood Masonic Foundation can count toward your required minimum distribution, subject to a collective limit of $100,000 per year. Such distributions do not incur either federal income or estate taxes but also do not count as itemized deductions for tax purposes.

Donations can be made after death by naming The Lakewood Masonic Foundation as a beneficiary in your will, life insurance policy, IRA, TOD (Transfer on Death) account or the like, either as a fixed amount or a percentage. A will can be amended by codicils without having to be rewritten in its entirety. In matters such as these, you are best advised to discuss your intentions with an attorney and/or tax accountant.

Gifts may be in the form of cash, securities or property. Gifts of appreciated securities and/or charitable gift annuities can be especially beneficial to the donor. In matters such as these, you are best advised to discuss your intentions with an attorney and/or tax accountant.

Some employers have payroll deduction plans and/or matching gift programs for charitable giving. Check yours.

Gifts and bequests to our Lakewood Masonic Foundation (but not our Lakewood Masonic Temple Endowment Fund or our Lakewood Masonic Temple Company Operating Fund) are deductible for federal estate and income taxes to the extent permitted by law. As always, we encourage you to consult your legal and financial advisors for assistance in determining in what form and in what amount you should make any major gift or bequest.

Points of Entrance, Perfect

In the earliest lectures of the eighteenth century these were called Principal Points. The designation of them as Perfect Points of Entrance was of a later date. They are described both in the English and the American systems. Their specific names, and their allusion to the four cardinal virtues, are the same in both; but the verbal explanations differ, although not substantially. They are so called because they refer to four important points of the initiation. The Guttural refers to the entrance upon the penal responsibilities; the Pectoral, to the entrance into the Lodge; the Manual, to the entrance on the Covenant; and the Pedal, to the entrance on the instructions in the northeast.

Points of Fellowship, Five

There are duties owing by every Freemason to his Brethren, which, from their symbolic allusion to certain points of the body, and from the lesson of brotherly love which they teach, are called the Five Points of Fellowship. They are symbolically illustrated in the Third Degree, and have been summed up by Doctor Oliver as "assisting a Brother in his distress, supporting him in his virtuous undertakings, praying for his welfare, keeping inviolate his secrets, and vindicating his reputation as well in his absence as in his presence" (Landmarks i, page 185).

Cole, in the Freemasons Library (page 190) gives the same ideas in extended language, as follows:

1. When the necessities of a Brother call for my aid and support, I will be ever ready to lend him such assistance, to save him from sinking, as may not be detrimental to myself or connection, if I find him worthy thereof.
2. Indolence shall not cause my footsteps to halt, nor wrath turn them aside; but forgetting every selfish consideration, I will be ever swift of foot to serve, help, and execute benevolence to a fellow-creature in distress, and more particularly to a Brother Freemason.
3. When I offer up my ejaculations to Almighty God, a Brother's welfare I will remember as my own; for as the voices of babes and sucklings ascend to the Throne of Grace, so most assuredly will the breathings of a fervent heart arise to the mansions of bliss, as our prayers are certainly required of each other.
4. A Brother's secrets, delivered to me as such, I will keep as I would my own; as betraying that trust might be doing him the greatest injury he could sustain in this mortal life; nay, it would be like the villainy of an assassin, who lurks in darkness to stab his adversary, when unarmed and least prepared to meet an enemy.
5. A Brother's character I will support in his absence as I would in his presence: I will not wrongfully revile him myself, nor will I suffer it to be done by others, if in my power to prevent it.

The enumeration of these Points by some other more recent authorities differs from Cole's, apparently, only in the order in which the Points are placed. The latter order is given by Doctor Mackey:

1. Indolence should not cause our footsteps to halt, or wrath turn them aside; but with eager alacrity and swiftness of foot, we should press forward in the exercise of charity and kindness to a distressed fellow-creature.
2. In our devotions to Almighty God, we should remember a Brother's welfare as our own; for the prayers of a fervent and sincere heart will

High Priest's Message

Companions:

I want to once again communicate how honored I am to have been elected your High Priest and having the privilege to communicate with you in this newsletter. As I write this, the summer is rapidly coming to a close, being only a couple of weeks before Labor Day. I want to express my hope that you were able to enjoy this summer in something resembling normalcy.

We will be returning from our summer break with Table Chapter on September 15. This will be a tyled meeting, so attendance will be limited to Companions only. If you plan on attending please RSVP by Monday September 13 to ensure we have a relatively accurate head count. Please feel free to invite any Royal Arch Companion to attend this event. There will be a nominal fee of $10 for this event.

Our schedule for the upcoming year is to practice the Mark Master Degree at our October meeting, conferring it in November. December the Chapter will confer the Past Master Degree. This will also be our Inspection for the year, so I would like to encourage all of our Companions to attend. Also in December we should be participating in the Light Up Lakewood Holiday parade on Saturday December 4; again I encourage all of our Companions, their family and friends to participate. This is a truly fun event that provides us significant exposure within our local community. The Lakewood Temple is open to the public during this event, so even if walking is an issue for you, you may still participate either by riding in a car or greeting the public at the Temple. Our January meeting will be practice for the Most Excellent Master degree, and the Chapter will confer the Most Excellent Master degree in February. The Royal Arch degree will be practiced in March and conferred in April. The May meeting will be our Awards Night and annual election of officers. Installation of Officers will be on June 6, 2022 (first Monday).

I will be providing periodic updates, both in this newsletter and via email. My first email was sent out in August. If you did not receive a copy it is because we do not have a current email address for you on file. If you have an email address and did not receive our communication, please provide your email (as well as updated address and phone information) to either our Secretary John Whitehouse or myself. (see the column on right for contact information).

Annual Dues were due May 31, so if you have not yet remitted your dues please do so as soon as possible. As always, if you need assistance with your dues because of financial reasons please contact the Secretary or me so we can help.

Stated Assembly First Wednesday 7:30 p.m. • www.lakewood125rsm.org

Master's Message

Companions:

Once again I've arrived in the East of Lakewood Council; and I thank you for your confidence and, I hope, your encouragement and support. Our loyal Illustrious Companion Bert Horne has once again retired from the East (this time to Captain of the Guard), and we thank him for his years of service. IC Bert's been trying his best to collect a wide variety of surgeries, from which he's recovering once again (shoulder); and he deserves a rest!

Our last Cryptic Year was a very trying period during which our ritual work was essentially on hold. Nevertheless, we attracted three new petitioners from Cunningham Chapter's May exaltation class of seven, with at least one more petition expected in September. We advanced one of our new petitioners in June, so we still have new candidates to start their degree cycles this year, plus at least one pre-COVID catchup candidate. So NOW is the time to recruit new Cryptic Masons before we embark upon this year's degree cycle. Our petition form is on our web site, and our current petition fee is $50.

We will return to labor on WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1 (yes, that's BEFORE LABOR DAY) with our traditional Table Council at which we will participate in an interactive exercise entitled "Why Came You?" We will collect a nominal fee of $10 for the dinner which will commence at 6:30p. PLEASE CALL OR EMAIL ME WITH YOUR RESERVATION.

This year's 192nd Grand Council Assembly will be held at Great Wolf Lodge in Mason on October 3-5, during which we anticipate that our 7th Arch RIC David Weimer, currently Deputy Grand Master, will be elected and installed as our new Grand Master. His installation will be on Tuesday, October 5, in the late morning, for those who would like to attend (bring your dues card and apron).

Our October 6 Stated Assembly falls during Grand Chapter (in Columbus this year), but we hope to at least assemble a quorum to conduct our necessary business.

On November 3 we will practice the Royal Master Degree in anticipation of conferring it on December 1.

On behalf of our 7th Arch and our Diabetic Kids Fund I want to personally thank and congratulate our Companions who volunteered at the WonderStruck Music Festival, Medina County Fair and Country Jam this summer, especially since volunteers (and Tenable Event Services employees) were harder to come by this year. These traditional 7th Arch projects raise funds for our Diabetic Kids Fund and fraternal work. And they're fun!

The COVID pandemic is still rearing its ugly head at various times and places; so, while we hope to see you in person at this year's Assemblies, we'll understand when you think it's best to stay home. Stay safe and well!

Stated Conclave First Thursday 7:30 p.m. • www.holygrail70kt.org

Commander's Message

Sir Knights:

Soon we will be coming back from our summer break to what will be a busy year for Holy Grail Commandery. After being mostly out of commission during the pandemic, we are sure to have a lot of work ahead of us as we once again get back to the business of Chivalric Masonry.

September will also be our first meeting on our new night, which is the first Thursday of the month. Make sure to mark your calendars and plan accordingly. I know for myself it will be interesting having back-to-back nights at the Temple, with Lakewood Council meetings on the first Wednesday. I look forward to seeing you all soon.

I would also like to thank the Knights of Holy Grail for electing me to another year as Commander. I remarked at our election night meeting back in May that it was the first time I had actually sat in our Asylum as Commander; I was elected, installed, and presided almost completely virtually. I hope that despite the recent activity on the COVID front that we're able to come back to a more normal Templar experience and that I get the chance to fully execute the responsibilities you have entrusted to me.

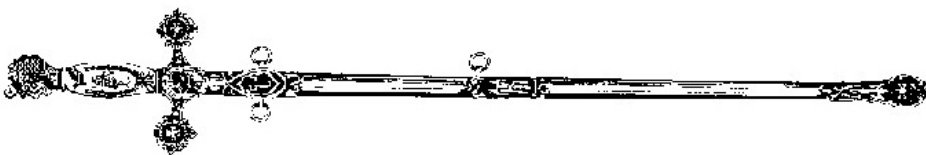

While Templary is just getting back to business, things have been forging ahead in Capitular Masonry. After a similar hiatus, there are many newly exalted Royal Arch Masons who I'm sure are interested in continuing their Masonic journey; and we as Sir Knights should make sure that those seeking more light know that there is much more to be had in our Orders. As we attend our Chapters let us be mindful of this and make sure that those who seek, find.

Be well, sir knights.

AMENDMENT TO THE BY-LAWS

Stated Conclaves: A Stated Conclave shall be held on the First Thursday of each month, except July and August, at 7:30 o'clock P.M.

This proposal was read for the first time at our Stated Conclave on May 12, published to all members in our June newsletter, read for the second time at our Stated Conclave on June 9, adopted the same date and subsequently approved through Grand Commandery.

President's Message

My Dear Beauceant Sisters:

It is so hard to believe that summer is over, and we are now approaching autumn with its beautiful colors and cooler temperatures. It was so wonderful to be able to meet in person for a Lunch Bunch in July, and I thank all who attended for their flexibility in that we did meet in the Ballroom with temporary tables set up and good times shared by all. I feel that we accomplished a great deal toward getting ready for Supreme in Kingsport the end of September.

As this pandemic continues to linger and now is growing again, I encourage everyone to please make the best choices based on your life and health. I have made a personal choice to postpone my vacation until the end of October, and therefore will be at the September meeting. I am concerned about in-person meetings, but as of this time I am planning on in-person meetings until further notice unless the government changes the current status rules.

Below is our schedule for the upcoming months, and I do encourage everyone to take part as much as possible.

find no less favor in the sight of Heaven, because the petition for self is mingled with aspirations of benevolence for a friend.

3. When a Brother intrusts to our keeping the secret thoughts of his bosom, prudence and fidelity should place a sacred seal upon our lips, lest, in an unguarded moment, we betray the solemn trust confided to our honor.

4. When adversity has visited our Brother, and his calamities call for our aid, we should cheerfully and liberally stretch forth the hand of kindness, to save him from sinking, and to relieve his necessities.

5. While with candor and kindness we should admonish a Brother of his faults, we should never revile his character behind his back, but rather, when attacked by others, support and defend it.

The difference here is apparently only in the order of enumeration, but really there is an important difference in the symbols on which the instructions are founded. In the old system, the symbols are the hand, the foot, the knee, the breast, and the back. In the new system, the first symbol or the hand is omitted, and the mouth and the ear substituted. There is no doubt that this omission of the first and insertion of the last are innovations, which sprung up in 1843 at the Baltimore Convention, and the enumeration given by Cole is the old and genuine one, which was originally taught in England by Preston, and in the United States by Webb.

We are pleased to report that our Chapter was able to exalt seven new Companions in May, a tremendous accomplishment made possible by the hard work of our Companions; but the continued success of our Chapter depends on us continuing to bring in new members; so if you are aware of Master Masons who would be prospective members, please encourage them to fill out a petition and return it to us as soon as possible so we may process the paperwork and vote on them by October. It is my intention to visit each of the Blue Lodges from which we traditionally draw our members during September 2021.

I look forward to serving you this year as your High Priest. Please do not hesitate to reach out me with any issues, concerns or questions you may have. Thank you.

Personal Merit

In the Charges, 1723, we find "All preferment among Masons is grounded upon real worth and personal merit only, that so the Lords may be well served, the Brethren not put to shame, nor the Royal Craft despised. Therefore no Master or Warden is chosen by seniority, but for his merit. (Constitutions, 1723, page 51).
