A Community Asset—This Place Matters!

This place, our Lakewood Masonic Temple, matters! Not only does it matter to our Lakewood Masonic Family, it matters to the Lakewood community.

We know that our Masonic home is an important community asset because we hear it from City and community leaders. The photograph at the left, taken from the National Trust for Historic Preservation’s web site (www.preservationnation.org/), is physical evidence of our community’s esteem.

The National Trust initiated a program called This Place Matters by which members can make online submissions of photographs and stories of special places that matter to them. Last May, during Historic Preservation Month, the Lakewood City Council, with the support of the City administration and various City boards, unanimously adopted an historic preservation ordinance allowing the local designation of historic and architecturally significant residential and commercial properties and districts. The City hopes that local designations will lead to more listings on the National Register of Historic Places. Lakewood currently has two National Register historic districts.

To commemorate the passage of the ordinance, Heather Rudge, a member of the City’s Heritage Advisory Board, submitted a story to the National Trust’s This Place Matters web site, using the picture to the left as a prime example of a property that matters to the community and that is eligible for listing. (An enlargement would reveal that each person holds a sign stating “This Place Matters.”)

Does this place matter to you? If so, we welcome your financial support for the historical preservation of our valued community asset; our home. You may make your gift by using the form on page 11. Your gifts to The Lakewood Masonic Foundation are deductible for federal tax purposes to the extent permitted by law.

Our New Masonic Scholarship

At its July meeting the Board of Trustees of The Lakewood Masonic Foundation voted to establish a scholarship to be given annually to a deserving graduating senior at Lakewood High School. Our award will be made through the Lakewood High School Alumni Foundation which will select the recipients. Our representative will be permitted to sit in on the interviews.

Freemasonry has always promoted the cause of making good people better, and Masons and Eastern Stars have long traditions of charitable giving and community involvement. Accordingly, our Foundation Board believes that supporting the academic pursuits of young Lakewood residents is in the best interests of both our Lakewood Masonic Family and our community; a natural next step in fulfilling our Foundation's stated purposes of historic preservation, charity and education.

We still require substantial funds for the preservation of our beloved Masonic home, so we will now be actively raising funds for multiple purposes. You may designate your gift for one of our specific purposes, or you may make an undesignated gift which our Foundation Board will use for our greatest current need. Your gifts to The Lakewood Masonic Foundation are deductible for federal tax purposes to the extent permitted by law. As always, you are encouraged to consult with your legal and tax advisors.

Main Street Lakewood

Main Street Lakewood is a volunteer-based program operating under the aegis of Lakewood Community Progress, Inc. (LCPI), an economic development corporation founded in 2002 by the Lakewood Chamber of Commerce and the City of Lakewood. LCPI's mission is to improve the quality of life of Lakewood residents by creating alliances with community leaders, leveraging community assets and expanding the pool of community resources to facilitate economic stability and growth. It is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization, the same status as our Lakewood Masonic Foundation.

Main Street Lakewood (MSL) (www.mainstreetlakewood.org) is dedicated to the revitalization of Lakewood's historic downtown commercial district (between Arthur Avenue and Bunts Road). Our Lakewood Masonic Temple is a major western anchor. MSL's purpose is to facilitate investment in downtown Lakewood by working to create an environment where residents, employees and guests want to come to live, work, shop and play.

Over the past year our Lakewood Masonic Temple has partnered with MSL in two of its major promotions—Light Up Lakewood, an event to kick off the holiday season; and Walk+Roll Lakewood, a summer event promoting healthy pursuits such as walking and bicycle riding. Detroit Avenue was closed to vehicles for both events. As with the annual Lakewood Arts Festival, our facility serves as a welcome rest area and performance venue linking us with visitors who may become future renters or members.

Master's Message

Where has the summer gone? Thus wastes man! Today he puts forth the tender leaves of hope; tomorrow blossoms and bears blushing honors thick upon him. The next day comes a frost which nips the shoot. And when he thinks his greatness is still aspiring, he falls like autumn leaves to enrich our mother earth. Tempus fugit. My Dad liked to say that phrase often to us kids as if to say don't waste the short time we have here on mother earth.

Brethren, time does fly when you are having fun; and it has flown by this Masonic year. We raised several candidates, had plenty of entertainment, a night out with our ladies and a spread of $5.00 dinners. Time flies, and if you missed coming to Lodge, well then shame on you. But it's not too late. September 11 is our Back to Lodge $5.00 dinner. Give me a call, and we will reserve a special place for you. And we have two new candidates who will receive their Entered Apprentice Degree on September 25. We're on a roll now. I hear we have several additional petitions in the works, and we would love to have you be a part of this great brotherly love and affection we have been experiencing at Clifton-Gaston Allen Lodge.

My Dad would draw an hour glass with some wings on it when he would say to us kids "Tempus Fugit." Behold, how swiftly the sands run and how rapidly our lives are drawing to a close! Brethren, why not spread a few of those particles of sand in your hour glass on the Master's carpet in our Lodge room.

Senior and Junior Entered Apprentices

In the ritual of the early part of the eighteenth century the Senior and Junior Entered Apprentices acted in the place of the Deacons, which offices were then unknown. The Senior Entered Apprentice was placed in the south, and his duty there was "to hear and receive instructions, and to welcome strange Brethren" . . .

According to the instructions of the early part of the eighteenth century, the Junior Entered Apprentice was placed in the North, and his duty was to keep out all cowans and eavesdroppers. There was also a Senior Entered Apprentice, and the two seem to have occupied, in some manner, the positions now occupied by the Senior and Junior Deacons . . .

Temple Security Guards Needed

The Lakewood Masonic Temple Company wishes to hire additional part-time security guards to look after the Temple during various Masonic and community events. The work is not difficult, but our guards must be able to work mostly evenings and weekends. Some of our customers meet on fixed schedules, while other events are scattered throughout the calendar. Interested parties should contact Bob Niebaum at 440.838.0766.

Master's Message

Brethren:

When you read this our summer will already be over, and a new Lodge year will be starting. I hope your summer was a good one and you enjoyed the pause from our labors. Welcome back, and review our schedule for the rest of the fall, as it will be a busy one. When the year started I was looking forward to our reconsecration ceremony in May as one of the highlights of the year, and it was. Of course it wasn't until I became caught up in the preparations for the year that I discovered it was also the bicentennial of the Grand Lodge of Ohio. That added a new dimension to the year and to the planning. The Grand Lodge has also had several events during the year to celebrate its special year, just as we have; and it adds a unique twist to be celebrating them together. We are fortunate to be here, as active members, while these special events are commemorated; and I feel fortunate to have had the honor to represent Lakewood Lodge at several of them.

Looking to our future, we are starting to see an influx of young men coming into the Lodge; and we look forward to them becoming active and then leading the Lodge into the second 100 years of our history. I wish all our members could be here for the events of this special year, and I hope some of you may still visit from out of town to share in these events. We would at least like to hear your thoughts and opinions, so please drop a line or an e-mail and let the Lodge know where you are and how you are doing.

While we are again starting our labors, we are also rapidly coming to the end of another Lodge year. Our Senior Warden is very busy planning for the transition and is gathering together a list of events for the next year. He will need the help of a strong corps of officers to make our next year a success, so if you have plans to be active let him know to what extent you would like to help and in what capacity. Brethren, we look forward to seeing you again this fall and hope that you will share in our activities. To aid in your planning, here is our schedule for the rest of the year:

Ann Rutledge Chapter #453 O. E. S.

Stated Meetings First & Third Wednesdays 1:30 p.m.

Matron's Message

To our Sisters and Brothers of Ann Rutledge Chapter, we hope that you have had a safe and healthy summer. John Whitehouse, Jr. and I hope you are looking forward to the Fall activities. We wish Worthy Matron-elect and Worthy Patron-elect Jean and Kenyon Killinger an exciting year. We also thank our officers for their service and kindness this year.

Sisters and Brothers, we have been very blessed with a bequest which we have used for Charity this year. We finished buying chairs for the dining room, painted the dining room, kitchen, and all restrooms in the basement and the Chapter room floor, carpeted the entrance to the Temple, bought large fans for the Chapter room and by the end of summer will have the carpets cleaned. We have donated to our normal charities but in addition large donations to our three youth groups and the Susan Komen Breast Cancer Fund, a Masonic Lodge and St. Hermans. Thank you for your continuing love of the Order and Ann Rutledge Chapter as we go forward this new year. Peace be with you.

Dove

In ancient symbolism, the dove represented purity and innocence; in ecclesiology, especially in church decoration, it is a symbol of the Holy Spirit. In Freemasonry, the dove is only viewed in reference to its use by Noah as a messenger. Hence, in the Grand Lodge of England, doves are the jewels of the Deacons, because these officers are the messengers of the Masters and Wardens. They are not so used in America. In an honorary or side Degree formerly conferred in America, and called the Ark and Dove, that bird is a prominent symbol.

Cunningham Chapter #187 R. A. M.

Stated Meeting Fourth Wednesday 7:30 p.m.

High Priest's Message

Companions:

The stories inculcated in the degrees at Cunningham Chapter are as refreshing as they are informative. The degrees, while still centered on the Temple of Solomon and the Ark of the Covenant, help us learn more about the symbolic Lodge. The lessons help explain what happened when the Temple of Solomon was finished and furnished, and what preparations were made for the Ark of the Covenant if the temple were to be destroyed.

If we could put the degrees in some type of chronological order, then we would start with the Entered Apprentice, followed by the Fellow Craft, the Mark Master, the Master Mason, the Most Excellent Master, the Past Master, and the Royal Arch Mason. The other degrees in the York Rite of Masonry fill in between and after the Royal Arch degree.

The Mark Master teaches the nobility of labor. The Past Master degree teaches moderation and decorum. In the Most Excellent Master the Mason sees, for the first time, the completed temple. The lessons of the Royal Arch degree are the essence of Masonic truth.

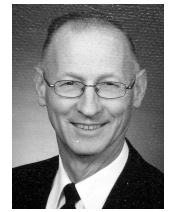

Cunningham's Inspection will be in the Mark Master degree. The Temple of Solomon, in the Mark Master, is still in the building phase. This is a fun degree where the candidate is one of the craftsmen. Here we learn of the nobility of labor for the building of our spiritual temple, which is eternal in the heavens.

Wars on Barbary Pirates

The regiments which fought across North Africa in World War II were not the first Americans to fight in Tunis, Algeria, Morocco, for in 1801 we sent our then infant navy there to make war on the pirates of the Barbary Coast, who had been destroying shipping for many years, American included, and France and Britain together had not been able to stop them. If we succeeded where the latter had failed it was largely owing to the ingenuity of one man, William Eaton, Consul at Tunis, who from out of Egypt and with a small group of natives infiltrated from behind the coast. It was Eaton who sent home the famous message: "Send some cash and a few marines." The Marine Corps was born in that war.

The majority of heroes and leaders in the war, which was neither short nor easy, were Masons: Stephen Decatur, William Bainbridge (probably), Commodore Edward Preble, Commodore Isaac Chauncey, Commodore Thomas MacDonough, etc. Decatur's utterance, quoted countless times, did not say that his country was never wrong or that he would support it in wrongdoing; he said, "My country—may it ever be right, but, right or wrong, my country;"—the utterance plainly saying that his country might be in the wrong. Like his father before him, who had belonged to Veritas Lodge, No. 16, Maryland, Decatur became a Mason early, in St. John's Lodge, Newport, R. I., in 1799. William Eaton was raised in North Star Lodge, Manchester, Vermont, in 1792.

Master's Message

Companions:

I hope you have all had a good summer. For those of you that participated in either the Indians or Browns projects, I thank you. Just think, only 8 more Browns games. We really need your support.

Now that you are all rested and refreshed, it is time to start "THE YEAR OF THE LADIES." We will start in September with our Recorder's famous chili. If you have not had this delight, please join us. As one member said, "I put a bowl of that chili on top of my head, and my tongue beat my brains out trying to get at it." The movie "Sweet Home Alabama" with Reese Witherspoon will be playing for you ladies while we are upstairs at our meeting. I will also have a list of movies I have which will be passed out and a vote taken on the movie for October. November is reserved for "The American President" with Michael Douglas and Annette Bening. With the national elections being held the next week, this movie is a must-see. We will have a guest speaker in December. What kind of meals you'd like will be discussed in September.

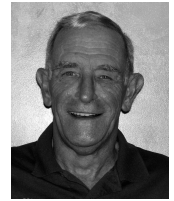

Now for the Companions. September meeting will be a shake-down cruise so we all get comfortable with our duties. We do have some important business to take care of as well. October we will have the Royal Master Degree and then on to Grand Council in Dayton. November is up for grabs at this moment. Let's hope we have to put on another Royal Master Degree. See you in September.

University Lodges

A university Lodge is any regular Lodge "on the campus" of a college or university, and designed to serve the needs of faculty and students. In American such a Lodge has no special membership provisions in its charter, but it may carry them in its by-laws. The Lodge lists published in Grand Lodge Proceedings are so completely non-descriptive that from them it is impossible to learn how many university Lodges there are in the United States, but there the number is not small.

In England where the Craft has always maintained a closer liaison with colleges and with scholarship the number is large relative to the number of schools. A University Lodge was constituted in London, in 1730. No. 293 was constituted at Cambridge University in 1763. The Lodge of Alfred, No. 455, was formed at Oxford University, in 1769; it was succeeded by the Apollo University Lodge, No. 357, in 1818. Isaac Newton University Lodge was formed at Cambridge, 1861; the Alma Mater, No. 1492, at Cambridge, in 1874; University Lodge at Sheffield, in 1919; Achilles, No. 4078, at Newcastle, in 1920; University Lodge at Liverpool, in 1921; Imperial College Lodge, London, in 1923; Universities Lodge, Cardiff, Wales, in 1934; at Birmingham, in 1936; the University of Manchester Lodge, in 1937. . . .

Holy Grail Commandery #70 K. T.

Stated Meeting Second Wednesday 7:30 p.m.

Commander's Message

Greetings, Sir Knights:

The Annual Inspection of a Knight Templar Commandery in the State of Ohio consists of two parts: The Order of the Temple and The Full Form Opening.

The Commandery Orders gather the most meaningful lessons of the three York Rite Bodies, namely Lodge, Chapter and Council and apply them to the Christian way of life. The Order of the Red Cross and the Order of Malta lay the ground work for the Order of the Temple, one of the most impressive and powerful ritualistic portrayals in all of Masonry.

While many a Knight Templar puts his best foot forward for the ritual work of the Order of the Temple, many do not understand the significance of the Full Form Opening as part of the Annual Inspection. The Full Form Opening is much more than a fancy way to do introductions.

While you can't take away the fact that introductions of visiting Sir Knights and Grand Commandery Officers is important, there are many other aspects of the opening that are more important. "Pulling off" the Opening with all one's own people is a major accomplishment in itself.

The Full Form Opening consists of Forming Ranks and escorts to perform the Reception of the Inspector and Grand Commander, if present. It is noteworthy to point out that for the past four years we have had the pleasure of having the Grand Commander at our Annual Inspection.

Once everyone has been escorted into the Asylum, introduced and seated then the Eminent Commander gives the orders to form lines and demonstrate the passing of the major passwords and other significant signs. The next action is the "Sword Manual" when the Sir Knights demonstrate their ability to follow commands and handle their swords in a proper manner. Following the Sword Manual, the ability to march in formation, present the colors and again follow commands in a precision manner is demonstrated. Finally, the Rehearsal of Duties is performed, and each officer must explain his duties and his proper position in the asylum.

When performed well the Full Form Opening is as impressive as the Order of the Temple. This year our Eminent Commander would like to perform the Full Form Opening at each of our stated meetings. When our Annual Inspection rolls around we will be very comfortable with the "Opening" and should make quite an impression on the Inspecting Officer.

Here are some special dates to put on your calendar in addition to our second Wednesday stated meetings. We also ask that you be ready to do color postings as they are requested.

Cleveland Assembly #15 S. O. O. B.

Stated Meeting Second Wednesday 7:30 p.m.

President's Message

Cleveland Assembly will soon be turning 88 years old. Cleveland Assembly #15 S.O.O.B. was constituted on April 29, 1921. The first meeting was held at the Odd Fellows Hall located at 2064 East 55th Street. By October 1921 the Assembly membership had grown; and the Assembly moved to Python Castle located at 1626 East 55th Street, giving them a more suitable facility.

In 1922 it was voted to rent the Lodge room on the third floor at the Al Koran Club located at 1624 East 35th Street. The "New Masonic Temple" opened, and in November 1923 the Assembly moved to 3615 Euclid Avenue (The Valley of Cleveland Scottish Rite Building). This remained its home until moving to Lakewood Masonic Temple in 1999.

On April 15, 1950, Lorain Assembly #147 was constituted. On February 5, 1982, it consolidated with Cleveland Assembly.

During these yearly years our members did a lot of welfare work such as inviting children from the Christian orphanage to Christmas parties and presenting them with gifts. We continue today with charitable work. The Knights Templar Eye Foundation has been supported by the Social Order of the Beauceant since 1957, and since this time the S.O.O.B. has made donations of over one and half million dollars.

Today's Beauceant is an Order with a long history of support to the Commandery, one that has proven to be a source of pleasure and benefit both to us and to the Sir Knights. It is a history we are proud of and one we wish to maintain. The S.O.O.B is open to the wives, widows, mothers, sisters, and daughters of Knights Templar who are 18 years and older.

Please mark your calendar for the following dates:

- Sept 10 Stated Meeting—Inspection Practice—Pot Luck Dinner 6:30p
(Lois Kubishke—Meat)
- Sept 21-26 88th Annual Supreme Assembly - Tampa, Florida
- Oct 8 Stated Meeting—Inspection Practice—Pot Luck Dinner 6:30p
(Wilhelmina Tazelaar—Meat)
- Oct 9-11 Grand Conclave—Columbus
- Nov 12 Stated Meeting—Inspection—Dinner 6:00p ($10.00, Sir Knights welcome. Please RSVP to Recorder or President by October 31)

Ignorance

The ignorant Freemason is a drone and an encumbrance in the Order. He who does not study the nature, the design, the history, and character of the Institution, but from the hour of his initiation neither gives nor receives any ideas that could not be shared by a profane, is of no more advantage to Freemasonry than Freemasonry is to him. The true Freemason seeks light that darkness may be dispelled, and knowledge that ignorance may be removed. The ignorant aspirant, no matter how loudly he may have asked for light, is still a blind groping in the dark.

Lakewood Chapter Order of DeMolay

Stated Meetings First & Third Thursdays 7:30 p.m.

Lakewood DeMolay meets on the first and third Thursday of each month, and all Master Masons are encouraged to visit at any meeting.

Membership is open to young men aged 12 to 21. No Masonic affiliation is required for membership other than to be sponsored by a Mason. If you know of a young man who would be a good DeMolay, please contact Junior Councilor Michael Haskett at 440.892.1738.

Heart

Notwithstanding that all the modern American Masonic Manuals and Masters Carpets from the time of Jeremy L. Cross exhibit the picture of a heart among the emblems of the Third Degree, there is no such symbol in the instructions except as a part of the stern injunction that justice will sooner or later overtake the wrongdoer. But the theory that every man who becomes a Freemason must first be prepared in his heart was advanced among the earliest lectures of the eighteenth century, and demonstrates, as Krause properly remarks, in Speculative Freemasonry, an internal principle which addresses itself not simply to the outward conduct, but to the inner spirit and conscience of all men who seek its instructions.

—From Mackey's Revised Encyclopedia of Freemasonry, 1946.
